

FRONTLINE SUPERVISOR TRAINING PROGRAM

About the Program

The Boggs Center on Disability and Human Development is collaborating with Direct Support Workforce Solutions at the University of Minnesota's Institute on Community Integration (ICI) to offer a 9-month Frontline Supervisor Training Program focused on developing knowledge, skills, and abilities based on the National Frontline Supervisor competency set.

The program is a blended learning model which combines online, asynchronous lessons from the College of Direct Support with monthly interactive live online and in-person training sessions delivered by Direct Support Workforce Solutions.

Interested Frontline Supervisors must apply online by August 8, 2025 to be considered for the program. Full participation, with agency support, is required.

Space is limited and acceptance will be determined based on the number of applicants. Applicants will be notified of acceptance by August 30, 2025.

Target Audience

Frontline Supervisors working for DDD provider agencies in New Jersey

Have questions?

Email Colleen McLaughlin (colleen.mclaughlin@rutgers.edu) and Nicole Warren (nicole.l.warren@rutgers.edu) with any questions you may have.

Scan or click the QR code to learn more and apply.

